Welcome to Newlands, a place where exceptional care meets refined living

Founded on a belief that later life should be as fulfilling and enriching as every chapter before it, Newlands is more than a care home, it's a private Cotswold country residence where the finer things in life are celebrated every day.

Our commitment is deeply personal. As a family, we trust in Newlands so much that our own loved ones would be happy to call it home. Our philosophy is simple: exceptional care, warm hospitality and a lifestyle designed around our residents' needs and aspirations.

Here, every detail matters - whether it's a chef preparing a resident's favourite dish, a team member arranging a special outing to the Polo in our Chauffeur driven vehicle, or simply taking a moment for a meaningful conversation.

We invite you to experience the Newlands difference – where care is not just about support, but about flourishing in comfort and style.

Warm regards,
